READY

The elevation of mankind, now everyone is talking about
And I feel, there's something going on, for sure, no doubt
From time to time Atlantis is going down, or is rising up
And I decide which way I go, or I am the way to the top
Are you ready; are you ready, for yourself?
Are you ready for Love, are you ready for Love
Are you ready for, are you ready for Love?

The truth about the earth, the truth about Life, the truth about you and the humanity
I want to know the truth, the truth about our history, the presence, the future and eternity
I wonder where my dreams are ending, and I want to know all the answers about me and the space
I want to know all, yes I want to know God, when, why, how and what is grace
I am ready, I am ready, for the truth

I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love, I am ready
I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love, I am ready
I am ready for Love I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love
I am ready for Love

I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love, I am ready for myself,
I am ready for the truth, I am ready for God, I am ready
I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love, I am ready for Love
I am ready for Love,

THE GALAXY IS ME

Mi mare mai
Mi mare mo
Mi mare ma,
me ge gischgen go dra'im,
Me genma ritman
Chick endem dem, demdram
The Galaxy is me – I am the Galaxy

My hand was made strong, as a being in the time
To create what is here to be, so I see who I am
Turning in and all around me, diversity free to be
All ONE within You and Me
The Galaxy is me – I am the Galaxy

I am a human being, a man, I am mankind, I am Live
I am earth and all the elements, I am the planets and the sun
I am the movement and the space, the moons, the comets and the stars
University, diversity, unity
The Galaxy is me, I am the Galaxy

THE CALL

Do you hear the call?
Do you hear the call of your inner being?
Its yourself it calls to be alive
To feel to express
To express everything what is inside
This the Life flowing through us
To be incarnated here on earth
Is full Joy
To express Life is Joy
To be yourself is Joy
Incarnate, incarnate
In a physical body here on earth
This is Life, this is Joy, this is Oneness
Now, the time has come to be One
One within the Universe
One with the Life, one with the earth and one with the humanity

FEEL THE SUNSHINE

Feel the sunshine, feel the sunshine in the heart
Feel, feel, feel the sunshine, feel the sunshine in the heart

Getting on the ground on a cloudy day, yes I feel, this is okay
Up and down, day and night, never mind
Walking ahead in the river of Life, I never give up, seeing the Light
Left or right, wrong and right, never mind
Feel, feel, feel the sunshine
Feel the sunshine in the heart
Feel, feel, feel the sunshine
Feel the sunshine in your own heart

What shall I do there on the ground, calmly looking at what you have found?
Keep moving forward, lift you head, Never mind
Smile today out of the soul, being in Peace with it is the goal
Wonderful life, like a child, never mind
Feel, feel, feel the sunshine
Feel the sunshine in the heart
Feel, feel, feel the sunshine
Feel the sunshine in the heart

NOW HERE ALL ONE

Sitting in the fire, it is burning bright light
Flowing like water, melting down the ice
Time turns all around me, turns future into past
Living awareness, now, here, all, one

Feeling emotions, remember your part
A child is dancing, from the bottom of the heart
Time turns all around me, turns future into past
Living awareness, now, here, all, one

Sitting in the fire, it is burning bright light
Flowing like water, melting down the ice
Feeling emotions, remember your part
A child is dancing, from the bottom of the heart
Time turns all around me, turns future into past
Living awareness, now, here, all, one

TO BE WILD AND FREE

To be wild and free, to be wild and free
To be wild and free, to be wild and free

I heard the false game is over now
They said, now it's time to be
Time to be, wild and free

To be wild and free, to be wild and free
To be wild and free, to be wild and free

BE YOUR BODY

Being for a while, in the very best style
Embodied on earth, is to think about worth
Tempted by money, that's not very funny
Deserving or serving, are you a king
Shillerling things, conflicting hints
Paralyzing my mood, but doesn't feel good
And I am not poor, yes I know it for sure
There's a way out, I sing it now loud

Be the body, it's your time, live your Life,
The soul is Love
The night is bright, let's take it over now

My/our body this beauty, perfectly on duty
The highest bliss, if nothing but love is
On seven wheels or moor, to the highest floor
Taking up space, the destiny of our race

Be the body, it's your time
Live your Life, the soul is Love
The night is bright
Let's take it over now

HEROES OF THE NIGHT

The world is your mirror, an illusion you're living in
The hero's task is to wake up from his dream

I like the thought, that out there in space
The sun shines even during the night
This shows me clear that if I dive deeper
There's always more the obvious view
If you believe in good is good and bad is bad
I suggest you to consider the idea
We incarnate on earth to stay in boundless Love
Day and night, with enemy and friend
We are coming from the stars to spread the light down here
We are the heroes of the night

Out of being we dive deep into the matter
And forget about, who we really are
We forget about the dimensions, which we travelled through
And about our power to create
With our imagination we define the world
It's you the one that decides
So use your sword wisely; let your heard be the guide
Freedom only exists inside
The world is our mirror, an illusion we are living in
We are the heroes of the night

We are coming from the stars to spread the light down here
We are the heroes of the night
The world is our mirror, an illusion we are living in
We are the heroes of the night

The world is our mirror, an illusion we are living in
The hero's task is to wake up from his dream

DIVINE SOUND

Billions of stars in the sky
Forever moving without asking why
Towards the end of their way
Only some they always stay
In their place, fixed in their space
In their place, fixed in their space

The way is like watching a TV-show
I want to know the end, but i don't know
What's coming up, in our world
I want to fly like a bird
Up in the sky, there is no lie
Up in the sky, there is no lie

The calmness is great above the ground
From some where I can hear a divine sound
Yes smoke is hiding an extending fire
It starts to burn all greedy desire
Divine sound, rings for a new round
Divine sound, rings for a new round

Divine sound is burning hard in fact
It's looking like a very crazy act
When burning people are running around
Hoping the king will soon be crowned
Congealed blood, is the aim of God now
Congealed blood, is the aim of God now
